

14E40

Fire Control

Platoon Sergeant

Fire Control Platoon Sergeant for a forward deployed Patriot Battery in support of Higher Echelon. Responsible for the health, welfare, morale, training, and support of 17-21 Soldiers and NCOs. Provides technical and tactical guidance to accomplish the daily duties of his/her platoon, to include supply, food service, and NBC Operations, as well as the overall training, operations, and administrative activities of the platoon. Responsible for 6 vehicles and support equipment, valued in excess of $25,000,000. Evaluates all positions in the firing battery. Writes and implements training plan for the Fire Control platoon. Evaluates the battery defense design, briefs commander of deficiencies, and subordinates for execution. Coordinates training with all platoons to facilitate unit training. Ensures proper cross training positions to prevent degradation upon loss of crew personnel. Ensures all training IAW ARTEP and TSOP standards. Advises the commander on the training status of the platoon.

OFFICE, CHIEF OF AIR DEFENSE ARTILLERY

FOU